CHURCH MUSIC INSTITUTE

Bulletin Announcement:

The Church Music Institute presents a Festival of Church Music on Sunday, October 13, 2019, at 7:00 p.m., at the Meyerson Symphony Center in Dallas. Eric Nelson, artistic director of the Atlanta Master Chorale, will conduct a 400-voice choir comprised of singers representing dozens of churches. Cynthia Nott, artistic director and conductor of the Children's Chorus of Greater Dallas, will lead a children's choir prepared specifically for the event. Bradley Hunter Welch, Organist for the Dallas Symphony Orchestra, will accompany the choir and the gathered assembly in singing the inspiring and timeless music of the Church. Designed to highlight sacred music representing many eras and styles, the Festival will feature music from chant to gospel to classic hymns. A conference entitled "Best Practices for Faithful Twenty-First Century Worship and Music Leaders," featuring nationally-recognized clergy and church musicians, including Rev. Dr. Peter Marty, editor of The Christian Century, will precede the Festival on October 10 and 11. Visit www.churchmusicinstitute.org for more information.
